

Adam Pettinger from the Nuclear and Applied Robotics Group at the University of Texas at Austin will discuss the development of a 6 degree of freedom manipulator for hazardous sample collection.